The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible indorsement of the leading and standard, authorities of the several schools of medical practice, are not afraid to print, as they do, the list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite nervous expansy Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, so injurious to delicate women even in small quantities when long continued. Neither does it contain any narcotics, or other harmful, or habit-forming drugs and no agent unters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same allonents for which this world-famed medicine is advised by its manufacturers.

No other medicine for woman's life has any such crofessional endorsement as CDr. Pierce's favorite Prescription. Sultan's Ragged Soldiers. The sultan's army suggests a regular country circus. Every Friday one may see a sample of there monkeylike soldiers at the parade of the Se lamlik, which takes place on the Kasba square at 11 a. m. A battalion marches past in double column and salutes the governor, who goes from his palace to the mesque.

All these soldiers are poorly equipped. Their uniforms have lost their color and their trousers are too short, showing their legs, which shine as if they had been covered with shoe polish. However, it would be a mistake to think that this gang of ragged ruffians could not stand a fight. Fanaticism will make heroes of them, for their contempt of death is absolute.
